MANGANESE ORE.

MAY MARK AN EPOCH IN VIRGINIA IRON INDUSTRY.

The arrival of the ship King's County and the near expectation of the Kanbira, both from Rio and both loaded with high-grade manganese ore, may mark an epoch in Virginia iron mining and milling. The recent combining of the iron mines and mills in the South-western and Valley section of this State with the Coal and Coke Companies of the same sections, secured by the Tuna Creek Coke and Coal Company, and with that company's stockholders as principals, has greater significance than has been given it for this port. This company's output of coal and coke has largely increased in the last two years, and their coaling of foreign steamship lines has grown as rapidly. The importation of manganese ore to be shipped to the mills of this and like companies, will provide for an enrichment of the ore which their mines produce and put them in line for producing high-grade steel and iron work, allowing them to compete with anything turned out in the country.

The two ships above noted bring respectively 1,500 tons and 2,800 tons of this ore, which is of much value in high-grade iron production. The ship Canada is also en voyage to Rio and return, and may bring a like cargo. This will furnish, as has been pointed out in this paper, in the South Cuban trade, as a possibility, a return cargo, making West Indian and South American trade doubly productive to shipping, and undoubtedly will prove a valuable factor in establishing the shipping and railroad business of this port.

THE BRANTLY CHURCH PASTORS.

The Baltimore Sun of yesterday has the following item of news that will be of interest to the Baptists of Norfolk: "The Brantly Baptist Church is making preparations for the coming of the co-pastor, Rev. Dr. M. B. Wharton, of Norfolk. The installation exercises will occur on Sunday, May 7. Services will be held morning and evening and there will probably be an afternoon service, which will be in charge of different ministers in the city. These will probably be held in Music Hall. On Monday night, May 8, the church will have a social and a reception. Dr. Henry M. Wharton, the pastor, will be present and participate in all the exercises. This will give Brantly Church three pastors—the two Wharton brothers and Rev. Henry Cross, the present pastor's assistant."

ITS CAREER ENDED

Norfolk College For Young Ladies Will Close.

At the End of the Present Scholastic Year in June, the Stockholders Will Discontinue Provisions For Its Support.

With the end of the scholastic year in June of 1899 the Norfolk College for Young Ladies will close its doors to the public and retire from the list of public educators. This is not a hasty action, but the result of a gradually crystallizing opinion of the stockholders, to whom, to use the language of the president, Captain John L. Roper, the fun of continually paying out with no return has lost its novelty and charm. "The fact is," said Captain Roper, when talked with by a Virginian-Pilot reporter yesterday, "there have been but two years when the college has paid expenses and never has it paid any dividend." The Captain owned that he was the principal stockholder and that the college had been a drain since the time it was built eighteen years ago. He said he had given a great deal of his time and thought to it, but how valuable to be given any further in this direction.

Asked what he deemed the cause of the failure of the school, Captain Roper claimed that the causes were two in number. The first was the multiplying of small boarding schools in the country which furnished board and tuition for a less price than there is little question with the parents, and recently of the class of tuition furnished, the send their children to out of town schools, and at the end of the term they get a diploma and everybody is satisfied.

The second reason is undoubtedly the growing popularity of the public schools and the fact that it is getting to be fashionable to send their children there, while the public schools are getting to be a powerful factor in study. Captain Roper said that the stock of the school was $35,000, while nearly every year has added a burden of indebtedness which the stockholders have to pay. The school has been a bad with Captain Roper and it is with evident regret that he sees its mission ended. For several years it brought a large number of students from other cities and States who spent considerable money in Norfolk. Norfolk people have not, the stockholders feel, stood by the school as they ought, and it is now at its close. What will be done with the building is undecided, but it is likely that it will be taken by other parties and still continue as a school.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The commencement exercises this year will begin Sunday, June 4th, the baccalaureate sermon being then preached.
Class night, musical night, elocution night and commencement night will follow, the latter occurring on Thursday, June 8th, when the final address to the graduating class will be delivered by Mr. W. H. Venable, probably at the Academy of Music. The other

HOSPITAL COTS ENDOWED.

THE CITY'S EMERGENCY PATIENTS PROVIDED FOR.

The item in the yearly budget, passed Monday night, giving $1,000 for the endowment of two beds at St. Vincent's Hospital for a term of five years (or a yearly sum of $200) for the care of the emergency cases occurring at the station-house, or in the city, is largely the result of the efforts of Dr. J. R. Speight, physician to the station-house, who agitated the matter on the ground of economy and humanity. The city heretofore has had a contract with the above named institution on the basis of 86 cents per day for such unfortunate cases as emergency has thrown, wounded or sick, on the city's care, and as a result of the said contract frequently cases have been sent from the hospital to the almshouse or to the homes before having fully recovered, and where the constant care of a nurse or a physician, or both was still necessary, this action being taken to save the city the expense entailed in further stay at the hospital. By this new contract the city has now two beds for 555 days in each year, with all that that signifies in care and attendance, thus allowing its emergency patients to be fully recovered before leaving.

That the public may not impute the false impression that any partiality was shown in the selection of St. Vincent's, it is stated as a fact by Dr. Speight that the Norfolk Protestant Hospital was requested to submit a similar proposition, but declined, making a counter proposition agreeing to endow one bed for $1,000, or a room for $5,000, which was refused on the ground of indefiniteness.

WEDDING BELLS.

TWO PRETTY MARRIAGES SOLICITIZED YESTERDAY EVENING.

Mr. John P. Doran and Miss Louise Elmore Burgess, both of this city, were united in matrimonial bonds yesterday afternoon. The wedding was a quiet home affair, occurring at the home of the bride, 198 Brewer street, and was solemnized by Rev. Father T. J. Wilson, of the Sacred Heart Church, at 4 o'clock, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride, who is a charming brunette, was attired in a beautiful costume of white satin, trimmed with lace, and was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Burgess, also in white, both carrying handsome bouquets. The groom and his best man, Mr. Ed. J. Doran (his brother), were in full evening dress. The parlors were beautifully decorated, and the scene one of sweetness and charm.

Mr. and Mrs. Doran left for a trip to the North on the Washington boat last evening, accompanied by many hearty good wishes. The presents were numerous and valuable.

MCQUIRE-THATCH.

A very pretty but quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Elmore McGuire, No. 814 Tunstall avenue, at 8 o'clock last night, when her charming daughter, Miss Mary E. McGuire, became the bride of Mr. John S. Thatch, a popular young man of this city. The parlors of the residence were prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride was attired in a handsome gray broadcloth suit, trimmed with white satin, and wore white kid gloves. The maid of honor was Miss Alice McGuire, sister of the bride. She wore a suit similar to that of the bride. The best man was Mr. Solomon Thatch, brother of the groom. He, like the groom, wore conventional black. Rev. Father Frioli, of St. Mary's Catholic Church, impressively performed the rite that united them husband and wife. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held, the few chosen friends that were present bestowing their best wishes on the happy couple for a long and prosperous life. Mr. and Mrs. Thatch will reside with the bride's mother, at No. 814 Tunstall avenue.

SANITARY INSPECTION.

NEW SYSTEM OF INSPECTION IS AN IMPROVEMENT.

Mr. J. Cannon and W. L. Stevens, under Police Sanitary Inspectors, appointed under the recent ordinance of the council, began their rounds of continuous inspection yesterday morning. Their daily reports are referred to the Mayor, and by him to the proper branch of the city government for action. The system of inspection will be greatly simplified by the new ordinance.

The Chief Sholem Bazaar.

The Chief Sholem Bazaar was again open last night, and despite the threatening whether was largely attended and liberally patronized. There was a very pleasant evening of enjoyment and the management were made happy by the interest shown. The bazaar will be continued to-night.

Garments produced by Rudolph & Wallace represent the highest art in tailoring.

LANCASTER CIGAR BOXES ALL EMPTY.

The Revenue Collectors found quite a number of empty boxes carrying the bogus stamps of the Lancaster factory, but no cigars, the dealers stating that they had sold all they had. This leaves the round up in this section at about 75,000 as stated yesterday. It is hardly likely any more will be found.

A LUMBER COMBINE

A Wealthy Company Chartered in Norfolk.

Empowered to Increase Capital to Twenty Million Dollars and Hold One Million Acres of Land—Six Hundred Million Feet Standing Timber on Hand.

The Atlantic Coast Lumber Company, with a minimum capital of $1,000,000, which may be increased to $20,000,000, was chartered by Judge Henshel, of the Corporation Court, yesterday.

The head office of the company will be in Norfolk. Its officers are:

THE OFFICERS.

Lewis A. Hall, of Bay Mills, Mich., president; Edward B. Freeman, Norfolk, vice-president and general manager; Charles S. Fearing, of New York City, treasurer; Robert L. Montague, of Norfolk, Va., secretary; the Board of Directors to consist of Wallace B. Flint, of New York City; Waterman A. Tarr, of Boston, Mass.; Frank J. Saxe, of New York City; Edward B. Freeman, of Norfolk, Va.; Lewis B. Freeman, of Warren, Penn.; Wrighton W. Tamm, of Norfolk, Va.; Lewis A. Hall, of Bay Mills, Mich.

A COLOSSAL CORPORATION.

This colossal corporation may, under its charter, acquire in Virginia and other States real estate, timber, timber rights, minerals, mineral land, build and use wharves, barges and ships, and conduct a merchandise business. It may hold one million acres of land. The chief business to be conducted is, of course, the lumber business.

ITS PRESENT HOLDINGS.

The company has already acquired 600,000,000 feet of standing timber between Norfolk and Charleston, S. C. The men interested are the most successful lumber dealers in Norfolk and other cities.

WILL CONTROL THE TRADE.

It is probable that the company will practically control the lumber trade of this coast. Many mills will be erected along the coast of North Carolina. The company will own its own vessels to a great extent.
